Additional Information about Aircraft Registration

The following excerpt from Ohio Revised Code may provide helpful information about aircraft registration.

Renewal:

Application for aircraft registration shall be filed annually with the Office of Aviation during the month of January, and shall be renewed according to the standard renewal procedure of Section 4745.01 to 4745.03 of the Revised Code.

New Registration:

Upon purchasing an aircraft, the buyer shall make application for registration within 48 hours after purchase. There is no reduction in fee for aircraft acquired later in the year.

Important Definitions

Aircraft Sold - Aircraft has been sold to a new owner.

Aircraft NOT Airworthy - Aircraft has been destroyed, scrapped, or is disassembled for restoration and will not be flown in the current registration year.

Aircraft NOT Based in Ohio - Aircraft owner is Ohio resident but aircraft is based in a state other than Ohio.

It's The Law..... Aircraft Based in Ohio Must be Registered Annually with the Ohio Office of Aviation.

Failure to receive renewal notice does not excuse aircraft registrant from timely filing of renewal application and fee.
